Mention that you are attending a workshop conducted by Performance Programs and you may be eligible for a discount on your room depending on the day or time of year.*

Airports:

Hartford's Bradley (BDL) is slightly closer (60 miles) than Providence (PVD) (70 miles), so we generally advise checking both to see which has the better mix of schedule convenience and price. The price difference between the two airports can often be a few hundred dollars. And on some flights Hartford is less expensive, others Providence.

DIRECTIONS
